Businessman in business setting	I just find my life is empty – after years of pursuing success and money. Is there more at church?
Teen/College aged woman	I don’t find Christianity to be culturally relevant today. It was, like, a nice hobby for my parents, but it’s not for me now. Is it?
Black man – 40-ish	Is there a place for me at North Heights? Could my family really get involved?
Woman, late 20’s – early 30’s, with new baby in arms	I have my new baby, but I’m at home alone all day with no adults. I’m lonely. How do I get connected?
Man or woman, 20-ish	I’m single, and I’m really tired of meeting all the wrong people. Does North Heights have anything to offer someone like me?

GFX: Bullets over still shot of church building(s)	Yes, North Heights is a big church: two campuses, nine worship services each week with almost 4,000 regular attenders, 8,000 members, and well over 100 unique ministries. And we are a growing church, welcoming anyone – of any age - to be fed, to serve, to grow. :24

Shots of people in small groups, gathered in various ministries.

We are a church of relationships – a family of families. People gather in small, intimate groups, getting to know each other; praying for each other’s needs. They work together in ministry. Above all, every one of us seeks an ever-closer relationship with the living, loving God.

Shots of people interacting

Are you looking for meaning in your life? Answers to the important questions? Healthy and sincere relationships? Ways to get connected to the lives of others? A personal relationship with Jesus Christ is your first step. And North Heights may be the place for you to live out that relationship.

More shots of people and activities

A video that could properly cover all of the ministries and activities of North Heights would be hours long – so we will let several North Heights people share a few of their experiences.

People entering AH doors

There are so many prayer warriors, just involved in what’s going on in church on a Sunday morning. And to attend, to walk through those doors, I feel like there’s so much joy. And that to me is, that, that grace and the mercy that just flows through so many of the people at North Heights – as well as through the sermons.

Because it is designed to take somebody like me, or somebody like Darcy, who has more experience, um, and then we can both go through at the same time and get a lot out of it

 speaking to camera
 (stationary, slow zoom in)

As you look around this place, you will notice an excitement that is generated by the Holy Spirit. God is growing this church by growing healthy, Biblically grounded women, men, and youth for service in His Kingdom.

:16

Pastor Bob continues
 Camera dollies as Bob walks along fire road.

We are on a fantastic journey at North Heights. Where lives are being changed radically as people encounter the living God.
 People come here from every walk of life and from dozens of church backgrounds. Each one of us is on a spiritual journey, and the Lord Jesus is drawing us closer to Himself.
 The people here are just like you: they want to experience transformation in their own lives, and be part of transformation in the lives of others.

:34

Pastor Bob continues
 He stops and turns to camera
 (MWS, stationary, slow zoom in)

Do you want to be used by the Lord in mighty ways? Would you like to grown and deepen your own life in Christ? I believe it can happen here at North Heights. I invite you to join us.
 North Heights is a place to know Jesus and make Him known.
 What's next for you? Try the New Beginnings class. Alpha classes are great, and you can ask any spiritual question you have ever had. Small groups abound.
 There is a place for you at North Heights. Our goal is to let no one stand alone. Come, and join us.
